In Memory
of
Hon. E. L. Rector

Mr. Finlay offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Death has claimed the Hon. Elbridge Lee Rector, of San Saba, Texas, he having departed this life on June 4th, 1929, and the funeral services held at the family residence at San Saba by Rev. Dennis Macune, pastor of the Methodist Church, with burial at Odd Fellows' Cemetery; and

Whereas, He was a lawyer of ability, an author and student of political economy and a pioneer citizen of the highest integrity and honor; and

Whereas, He was at one time a member of the Texas Senate, having served in the Thirty-sixth Legislature with honor to himself and his State. Senator Rector was the son of Judge Nelson S. Rector, and was born in Seguin, Texas, in November, 1847. He was educated at West Texas Military Institute and was a graduate of the University of Virginia; he was admitted to the bar, and was married to Miss Pattie Townes, of Austin, in 1866. He was a member of the American Political Science Association and author of "Science of Money and Exchange." Senator Rector was an active member of the Methodist Church at San Saba for many years and active in all movements for the civic improvement of his town and county, and was prominently identified with the work of securing irrigation for the San Saba Valley. He was a brother of N. A. Rector, of Laredo, and of Knight Rector, of San Saba. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, That in the death of Senator Rector the State and all who knew him have suffered a great and irreparable loss. We join with his family, relatives and many friends in an expression of sorrow in his passing and in paying honorable tribute to his memory; be it further

Resolved, That a page be set aside in the House Journal in memory of Senator Rector, and that this resolution be printed therein, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to his widow and to his brothers, Hon. Knight Rector, San Saba, Texas; and to Hon. N. A. Rector, Laredo, Texas; and to the San Saba News and San Saba Star.

FINLAY, TILLOTSON,
VEATCH,
ACKER,
JENKINS,
KING,
POOL.

The resolution was read second time, and was adopted by a rising vote.
